

350.org

To the Bureau of Land Management:

Allowing big oil to frack on federally owned public lands would only mean letting more greenhouse gasses into our atmosphere at a time when we need to be building a renewable energy economy. Please say no to fracking on public lands, and help protect our air, water and climate for the next generation.

Signed,